DAR LA MANO

Ileana Rodriguez, director of Nicaragua's national library, visited the U.S. in March. Educated in this country but a proud supporter of the Sandanista government, she yearns for resources to offer better service to Nicaraguans. If your library could offer to train one of her staff in its methods, Ileana Rodriguez would be immensely pleased. If you know someone planning to visit Managua and that person is willing, ask her/him to bring supplies and equipment for libraries. Funding is also solicited. For more information, contact Ileana Rodriguez, Directora, Biblioteca Nacional Ruben Dario, Complejo Comunitario Eduardo Contreras, Aptdo. Postal No. 101, Managua, Nicaragua.

MADRE, the women's and children's health campaign, requests help too, especially for the stocking of hospitals; write: MADRE, 121 W. 27th St., room 301, NYC 10001.

SHE'LL BE THERE TO REACH OUT

In February, Sybil Moses became director of ALA's Office of Library Outreach Services. She is a liason and facilitator for SRRT members' concerns. Formerly a librarian in the Community Affairs Division of the New York Public Library, Sybil Moses is a member of the ALA Black Caucus and a doctoral student at the School of Library and Information Services of the University of Illinois.

SH! ELSIE WANTS TO HEAR FROM YOU!

The Library of Congress is experimenting with cooperative projects to establish subject headings. If you desire to make proposals for LCSH, please address them to Mary K.D. Pietris, Chief, Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress, Washington, DC 20540, and she will provide you with instructions for making formal requests.

...AND SO DOES FTF

Remember, this newsletter will be needing two editors right away. Show some WILL-power and let Polly Thistlethwaite, Bobst Library, NYU, New York, NY 10012, know of your interest. Or perhaps you prefer to develop and show off other skills--a variety of FTF offices will be opening in July. Let it shine!

MORE MEETINGS

The National Association of Women's Centers will hold a July 16-19 conference, "women at the Center," at Alverno College in Milwaukee. Keynote speakers are Robin Morgan and Angela Davis. You can register now for $160 (includes room and board). For additional information, write to The Women's Center, 726 N.E. Ave., Waukesha, WI 53186, or call Bobi Presley, 216-348-4220 or Julie De Smith, 414-547-4600.

Keynote speakers at "Explorations in Feminist Ethics: Theory and Practice" are Charlotte Bunch and Sara Ruddick. This conference, sponsored by the Univ. of Minnesota-Duluth Institute for Women's Studies and the Duluth Center for Continuing Education & Extension, will take place at the Radisson Hotel in Duluth on Oct. 7 & 8.

Helen Wheeler, of Womanhood Media, 2701 Surant Ave., Box 14, Berkeley, CA 94704, 415-549-2970, offers workshops in getting published to "(mainly)" women in management and to people in the fields of gerontology and aging.

SERIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Legacy: A Journal of Nineteenth-Century American Women Writers is published twice a year. Subscriptions are $15 for individuals, $18 for institutions. Back issues are $9 each; you may want to send for volume 3, number 2 (Fall 1986), which contains "Did They Never See Anyone Angry Before? The Sexual Politics of Self-Control in Alcott's 'A Whisper in the Dark.'" Dept. of English, Univ. of Mass., Amherst 01003.

Women & Environments is a quarterly from the Centre for Urban and Community Studies, 455 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Ont. M5S 2G8. Individual subscriptions cost $13; institutions pay $20.. Volume 10, no. 1 (Fall 1987) began with "A Women's Housing Manifesto."

Out/Look is a national lesbian and gay quarterly, $19 from P.O. Box 146430, San Francisco, CA 94114-6430. Upcoming articles will look at issues of race, culture, politics, religion, and health.

The 1988 Gallerie Annual will be the first issue of Gallerie, a quarterly of women's art. Available in June from 2901 Panorama Dr., North Vancouver, B.C. V7G 2A4, $12 for the Annual only $20 for that and the three subsequent issues.

The 1988 Ladyslipper Catalog and Resource Guide of records, tapes, compact discs, and videos for women, girls, and feminist men is available free of charge from P.O. Box 3130, Durham, NC 27705, 1-800-634-6044.

ALL OF THE ABOVE: NATIONAL WOMEN'S STUDIES ASSOCIATION

No conflict with the ALA convention this time around!--The NWSA tenth annual conference, "Leadership and Power: Women's Alliances for Social Change," will be held at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis, June 22-26. The theme focuses on how women of different backgrounds can work together, and participants will explore coalition building by examining culturally diverse leadership models that empower women. Details are available from NWSA '88, Univ. of Minnesota, 217 Nolte Center, 315 Pillsbury Dr. S.E., Minneapolis, MN 55455.

NOT SO EPHEMERAL: SEND FOR THESE PAMPHLETS

From the Older Women's League: "Questions Women Should Ask for a Healthy Future," "Information Packet: Preparing for the End of Life," "Group Health Insurance Continuation," and others. OWL, 730 11th St. NW, suite 300, Washington, DC 20001, is a non-profit membership organization. An annual membership is $10.

The New Jewish Agenda, 64 Fulton St., #1100, NYC 10038, 212-227-5885, will send you "Coming Out, Coming Home: Lesbian and Gay Jews and the Jewish Community" (50¢) and "Lesbian and Gay Liberation: A Bibliography for the Jewish Community" (30¢).

Stop the press---late item: OWL has also created the book Women Take Care: the Consequences of Caregiving in Today's Society, by Tish Sommers and Laurie Shields. Excellent. Triad Publishing Co., 1110 NW 8th Ave., Gainesville, FL 32601; $16.95, $9.95.

GOOD, SWEET, HONEYED, SUGAR-CANDIED READER (Aphra Behn, "An Epistle to the Reader")

Women in LC's Terms: A Thesaurus of Library of Congress Subject Headings Relating to Women, by FTF member Ruth Dickstein and Victoria A. Mills, helps users to locate terms relevant to women's studies but often difficult to find easily with LCSH alone. Oryx, $28.50. The publisher has also issued Women in Administration and Management: An Information Sourcebook, $43.50.

The Feminist Press, 311 E. 94th St., NYC 10128, has published a revised edition of Black Foremothers, by Dorothy Sterling, with a new introduction by Barbara Christian. Easy to read but showing its considerable research, this book costs $9.95.

Thirty-five women have contributed to You Can't Drown the Fire: Latin American Women Writing in Exile, edited by Alicia Partnoy and published by Cleis, Box 8933, Pittsburgh, PA 15221; $21.95, $9.95.

For $1.50, you can have "The Child Care Booklet" from the Business & Professional Women's Foundation, Box 5007, Wash., DC 20061, and learn about the cost and availability of daycare in the U.S.A.

Esther D. Rothblum and Ellen Cole have edited Treating Women's Fear of Failure: From Worry to Enlightenment, published by Harrington Park Press and selling for $9.95. A reprint of volume 6, number 3 of Women and Therapy, this book moves from the chestnut about women fearing success to examine a variety of achievement related fears. Especially interesting are the chapters on the impostor syndrome and on career aspirations of Black college women.

Poetry, prose, criticism, and visual art appear in Chicana Creativity and Criticism: Charting New Frontiers in American Literature, edited by Maria Herrera-Sobek and Helena Maria Viramontes. Mostly in English from Arte Publico Press, University of Houston, Houston, TX 77004; $10. The story "Andrea," by Roberta Fernandez is a gem.

Dublin, Ireland's Attic Press, 44 East Essex Street, is a feminist publisher currently offering short story collections. Write for their catalog or contact the Inland Book Company for more information.

"Sadomasochism: Not About Condemnation," "Apartheid U.S.A.," "A Burst of Light: Living with Cancer," and other essays make up the contents of A Burst of Light, by poet, critic, and thinker Audre Lorde. Probably everyone will want to read this book; $16.95 cloth; $7.95 paper. A Letter to Harvey Milk is a volume of nine stories by Leslea Newman, who writes confirmingly of Jewish lesbian experiences; $18.95, $8.95. Fans of cartoonist Alison Bechdel will relish More Dykes to Watch out For, a funny and loving book; $16.95, $7.95. Those of Ellen Galford, the picaresque novelist, will enjoy The Fires of Bride as much as they did her earlier chronicle, Moll Cutpurse; $18.95, $8.95. All four from Firebrand, 141 The Commons, Ithaca, NY 14850.

The Women's History Center, 6300 Walker St., St. Louis Park, MN 55416, 612-925-3632, advises students and teachers, K-12, on integrating women's history into traditional curricula. The center houses a 10,000-item library and invites tours. In addition, its staff publishes instructional units (readings, AV material, and teachers' guides) about women in many cultures. Send for a catalog.

Women in transition from marriage to the position of heading families on their own may profit from programs offered by guides informed by Discover, a program covering personal development (self-esteem, stress management, assertiveness, etc.), career parachuting (counseling, financial aid, etc.), and problem solving. Developed by the Women's Educational Equity Act Publishing Center, 55 Chapel St., Newton, MA 02160; 1-800-225-3088, the program can be purchased for $14.

ANOTHER ENDORSEMENT!

The April issue of WIL did not list Frances McDonald (Monkato State Univ., Minn.) among those endorsed by the Feminist Task Force for ALA Council, although the membership at Midwinter did approve her candidacy. Please do consider her along with the others when you vote. Again, for Council: Marva DeLoach, Salvador Duerena, David Searcy, and Binnie Tate Wilkin. Pat Berger was endorsed for ALA president, Carla Stoffle for treasurer.

PS: Vote, but don't stop there. Join a committee. Run for office. Be an editor.

GROUP PORTRAIT

The origins and development of the Feminist Task Force, formerly the Task Force on Women, are traced by Kay Ann Cassell in the Greenwood Press book Activism in American Librarianship, 1962-1973, edited by Mary Lee Bundy and Frederick J. Stielow.

COMMENT CA VA?

According to Nicknames and sobriquets of U.S. cities, states, and counties, by Joseph Kane and Gerard L. Alexander, New Orleans is known as: America's most hedonistic city, America's most interesting city, The Alexandria of America, The city of charm, The city care forgot, The convention city, The crawfish town, and The Paris of America, among other things.

LIBRARIANS AS COLLEAGUES ACROSS RACIAL LINES: STRATEGIES FOR ACTION is a program scheduled for the ALA New Orleans Conference on Saturday, July 9, from 12:30 to 4:00 in the afternoon. This is to be an action-oriented program focusing on strategies for combatting racism in the profession. All librarians and trustees are encouraged to attend. Prior registration is not required.

Keynote speakers are Aileen Hernandez, former president of the National Organization for Women, and Elizabeth Martinez-Smith, director of the Orange County (CA) Library system. Others on the program are Clara Stanton-Jones and E.J. Josey, former ALA presidents; Susan Hinojosa, University of California at Berkeley; Betty-Carol Sellen, Brooklyn College Library, City University of New York; and Vivian Sykes, San Francisco Public Library and discussion group facilitator.

Sponsors are: ACRL, AASL, RASD, ALISE, the Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship, ALA's Minority Concern's Committee, SRRT Action Council, SRRT Feminist Task Force, Ethnic Materials and Information Exchange Round Table, ALA Black Caucus, REFORMA, Asian/Pacific Librarians Association, and the Chinese American Librarians Association.

For further information, contact Betty-Carol Sellen, Gideonse Library, Brooklyn College, Avenue H & Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11210; telephone (718) 780-5618.

Hail and Farewell from your editors...and "a tip 'o the hat" to all who have contributed to our efforts.

We look forward to seeing y'all in New Orleans!

Subscribers--please take note of the new addresses in the next issue, volume 18, number 1 (September 1968).

WOMEN'S HISTORY WALKING TOUR

The SRRT Feminist Task Force will sponsor a walking tour on "Women in New Orleans History" Tuesday, July 12 at 11:00 AM. The tour lasts about three hours and includes a stop for beverage and pastry at a French cafe. The tour will begin at the foot of the statue in the center of Jackson Square.

Tour leaders Nancy Ries and Mary Gehman are well-recommended licensed tour guides. They have published a book entitled Women and New Orleans - A History. For additional information contact Betty-Carol Sellen, Brooklyn College Library, Brooklyn, NY 11210. 718/780-5618.

To participate in the walking tour, return the form below along with a check ($15 per participant) to Mary Gehman, 7444 St. Charles Ave., Apt. 101, New Orleans, LA 70118.

Women and New Orleans — A History

Mary Gehman: Text

Nancy Ries: Photographs

[144]pp. LC 86-139769

87 photographs, index

ISBN 0-9616377-1-4

$9.95 perfect binding 1988

The rich, vibrant history of New Orleans comes alive through Creole belles, baronesses, slave women, nuns, quadroons and voodoo queens in this comprehensive study. From the arrival of the Ursuline nuns in 1727 to women riverboat captains and Storyville madams to social and political activists the role of femme de la Nouvelle Orleans is explored through two and a half centuries and their many contributions enumerated.

This second edition is an expansion of material found in the 1985 original. Mary Gehman, historian and writer, brings new insights to her ongoing women's history research, while professional photographer, Nancy Ries adds many new photos and several historic treasures.

About the first edition:

"I enjoyed this book very much and I certainly hope it sets an example for women to do likewise with other cities and regions. It seems strange that it hasn't been done before."

— Donna Allen of The Directory of Women's Media

"School and public libraries, as well as libraries collecting Louisiana materials will want to add this book to their collections."

— LLA Bulletin of the Louisiana Library Association

"Informs the reader in highly readable, succinct fashion that socially and politically concerned women are not a phenomenon confined to just the 1970s and 80s."

— New Orleans Magazine

Also of Interest

Gehman and Ries, who are both licensed tour guides, have developed two very informative walking tours in New Orleans that focus on the role played by women in the city's history. One takes place in the Vieux Carré or French Quarter and the other in the city's historic Garden District; both include complimentary refreshments and are three hours in length.

Gehman and Ries have also compiled a slide show that reflects the many accomplishments of women in New Orleans. With fascinating commentary they present this two hour program to groups of any size.
